

Regulatory Digest

A convenient summary of the numerous regulatory actions issued each month on a state and federal level.

TMI's monthly synopsis of actions affecting competitive providers of telecom services. The Regulatory Digest, a convenient summary of the numerous regulatory actions, is issued each month on a state and federal level. These regulatory developments may impact a telecom providers' operations and their ability to create competitive products and serve their customer base.

The Digest arrives each month at your specified email address. Easily locate and review brief summaries regarding adopted regulatory changes, pending regulatory changes, and any follow-up activities related to rulings.

Topics that you will find included in the Digest are:

- VoIP developments
- UNE rates and unbundling requirements,
- changes to telecom funds surcharges
- billing rules
- slamming rules
- access charge rules

and much more.

This Digest is designed to assist sales, marketing, and operational managers who need to stay on top of regulatory changes - - but don't need the in-depth coverage provided by our Bulletin Service.